It's summer and that means a storm might impact your beach visit. Stay alert to changing weather conditions – the open beach is not the place to be when lightning is in the area. Did you know lightning can travel up to 10 miles or more from the storm cloud? Follow the 30-30 rule: if the time between the lightning flash and the crack of thunder is 30 seconds or less, the lightning is about six miles away or closer, so seek shelter. Fireworks Sponsors Needed

Lemon Bay Sunrise Rotary is planning to once again “Light Up Lemon Bay” with the annual July 4th fireworks displays, one of the best in SW Florida. But they need your help to make this happen. Please consider a sponsorship or donation to the fireworks fund. Sponsorships run $100 to $10,000, but any donation amount is greatly appreciated. Several sponsorship levels include access to eat and drink in the VIP tent prior to the show and a great seat to watch the fireworks. The cost of fireworks and insurance have skyrocketed, so your support is needed more than ever. Please go to LemonBaySunriseRotary.com to donate or mail a check with Fireworks in the memo line to Lemon Bay Sunrise Rotary Club, PO Box 897, Englewood, FL 34295. For more information on sponsorship opportunities, contact Rick O’Neal at 941-286-3358.

The items appearing in this column are as accurate as possible. Please call the listed numbers for confirmation and further information. If you have an upcoming event you would like to have considered for “Around the Town” please send info and/or photo to The Englewood REVIEW, email: englewoodreview@comcast.net.

After a record attendance of nearly two thousand people during the last year's 15th Annual Buchan Fly-In, the Scholarship Committee awarded three well deserved aviation scholarships. She too graduated from Venice H.S. and will join Leah at Embry-Riddle University. Skye has also been attending Venice Flight Training since January, 2023. Christopher Hutchins is also a Venice graduate who obtained his private pilot's license last November. He will be attending Oklahoma State University in the fall and hopes to earn a degree in Aviation Management and eventually join an airline. The group extends a big thank you to their many sponsors, volunteers, parents and the Englewood/Venice Community, and especially, a thank you to Scholarship Chair Kim Deins. The next Fly-In is set for Saturday, March 2nd, 2024. Pictured here is (l-r): Leah Bartlett; Kim Deins, Scholarship Chair; Skye van Gennip; and Christopher Hutchins.

Rotary Clubs Help Sky Academy Students Learn About Food Sustainability

By Chris Cameron

Next year's students at Sky Academy Englewood will have an exciting new project as part of their science & STEM curriculum. On May 25th, two aquaponic towers were dedicated to the school to teach the students about food sustainability.

This donation was made possible by the collaboration of the four Rotary Clubs in Englewood and the YMCA of SW Florida Englewood. The idea was spearheaded by the members of the Lemon Bay Sunrise Rotary Club. Club president Dave Wampler said the club was looking for a project to teach kids about food sustainability and found a kindred spirit with the Englewood Sky Academy & the YMCA. The Lemon Bay Sunrise Rotary Club was joined by the other three area clubs: The Rotary Club of Englewood, The Rotary Club of Englewood Sunset, and The Rotary Club of Rotonda. A Rotary district grant provided matching funds to the clubs' contributions to enable the purchase of two aquaponic towers, each containing a growing tower, plant water system, and a water tank for raising fish.

The aquaponic towers are a product of Sky-High Aquaponics, a division of Tryon Technology, Inc. Jack Haines, Head of Research & Project Development, was present at the dedication. He explained that aquaponics is a food production system that couples aquaculture (raising aquatic animals such as fish, crayfish, snails or prawns in tanks) with hydroponics (cultivating plants in water), whereby the nutrient-rich aquaculture water is fed to hydroponically-grown plants, where nitrifying bacteria convert ammonia into nitrates. The ergonomic, rotating design allows for simple planting and harvesting according to the manufacturer.

One of the items on the wish list of Sky Academy science teacher, Jesse Tremaine, had been the desire to educate students about aquaculture. The YMCA school believes in teaching children about food sources and that the future is sustainable farming. The aquaponic towers are right in line with this curriculum. Eighth graders will employ the towers as part of their STEM activities and seventh grade students will be involved through their Life Science course. Mr. Tremaine, Sky Academy, and the YMCA appreciate the area Rotary Clubs for bringing this project to fruition.

The presidents of the four Englewood Rotary Clubs posed for a photo: (l-r): Tom Hinck, Rotary Club of Englewood Sunset; Dave Wampler, Lemon Bay Sunrise Rotary; Carolyn Burke, Rotary Club of Englewood; and Allan Schildknecht, Rotary Club of Rotonda.

Sky Academy students will use the water tanks to raise tilapia. The waste products from these fish will be used as fertilizer for the growing towers. One growing tower will be used for seagrass, with the goal of using it as part of a seagrass restoration project with local organizations. Leafy greens and vegetables will be grown in the other tower, with the goal of producing enough to serve on the school menu.

According to Allan Schildknecht, President of the Rotary Club of Rotonda, the Rotary Clubs did not intend this to be a food production item, but a rather learning tool for students about aquaponics and how it could solve food production problems in many parts of the world. Students will learn the principles of science, agriculture, math, and business.

TAKING CARE of Business

Furniture & Décor Encore celebrated the opening of their second location at 3279 S. Access Road on May 31st with a ribbon cutting by the Englewood Chamber of Commerce and a party. Guests enjoyed snacks while they listened to vocalist Verceal Whitaker, former female lead vocalist of The Platters. While the original location at 12456 N. Access Road stocks both pre-owned and new furniture and home furnishings, this new location, Furniture & Décor, will only carry new merchandise. If you are shopping for furniture, rugs, and coastal artwork for your living room, dining room or bedroom, be sure to stop by. Brand names you can find here include Stone & Leigh, Cottage Creek, Leather Italia, Serta & Simmons mattresses, artwork by Banyan Design, and Lamps Per Se. One popular item now in stock is sleep chests, an updated version of a Murphy bed, that folds out into a queen-size bed and even has a drawer for storing pillows and linens. Store hours are Monday through Saturday, 10 am to 6 pm and Sunday 10 am to 4 pm. Delivery is available for this area. Photo: Owner Bryan Fraley cuts the ribbon with manager Deanna Guettler (blue & white top) while Chamber of Commerce members and store guests watch. The Chamber's support is greatly appreciated by Fraley.

During Nurses Week in May, HCA Healthcare West Florida Division Vice President of Nursing Operations Elaine Polaski spent a morning “walking in a nurse’s shoes” at HCA Florida Englewood Hospital. She traded in her business attire for nursing scrubs and laced up a new pair of orange running shoes. Throughout the day, she shadowed Amanda McKee, RN and StARN Natalie Dzhuga with the hospital’s Progressive Care Unit. The job shadowing experience has become an annual tradition that has helped leadership gain insight into the hard work that goes into each nursing shift while also identifying opportunities and creative ideas for continuous improvement. Together, they cared for patients, provided wound care treatment, completed medication administration, and performed patient assessments. In addition to her nursing responsibilities, Amanda is currently coaching Natalie, a recent nursing school graduate participating in HCA Healthcare’s StARN program for those who wish to obtain acute care nursing experience through an intensive internship. Photo (l-r): Amanda McKee, RN; Elaine Polaski, West Florida Division Vice President of Nursing Operations; and StARN Natalie Dzhuga.

June 7th was a day of celebration for the Leadership Englewood class of 2023 as they held their graduation dinner at The Waverly Restaurant. The 2023 Class faced some real challenges due to devastation caused by Hurricane Ian but the class legacy will be that they rose to the challenge with their class projects including waterway clean-ups and a commissioned sculpture composed of recycled storm debris to be displayed at Chadwick Park after it is completed by the artist. The class graduates are Lisa Eby (Charlotte County Board of Commissioners), Kim Weaver (Beautiful Blinds & Designs), Erin Morey (Custom Mortgage), Jaimie Walczak (Shipwreck Saloon), Robert Page (Galloway Roofing), MaryJo Claudius (Michael Saunders & Company), Kris Hartley (Joe Maxx Coffee Company), Krista Jennings (HarborOne Mortgage), Austin Fogo (Key Agency), Erica Raymond (D. Martin Plumbing Inc.), Jessica Souza (Paradise Exclusive Real Estate), Deanna Devine (Paradise Exclusive Real Estate), Janet DeLaney (HCA Florida Englewood Hospital), Dylan Cates (CAPS Home Accessibility & Safety Solutions), Tracy Stephens-Miller (YMCA of SW Florida), Allyson Garcia (Wampler Varner Insurance), Sam Beaugrand (Lasbury Tracy Realty), and Amanda Russell (Endurance Air). Funds raised by the class were awarded to six area non-profits: Big Brothers Big Sisters - $8,000; Gator Wilderness Camp - $6,000; Kids’ Needs of Englewood - $10,000; Englewood Meals on Wheels - $6,000; TLC The Learning Center for Dyslexia - $6,000, and the YMCA of SW Florida, $10,000. $3,000 was awarded in youth scholarships and funds have been allotted for the cost of the commissioned community sculpture symbolizing Englewood’s resilience. Leadership Englewood is designed to educate local business leaders about their community and the societal and economic challenges it faces. Armed with that better understanding, the individual can best determine how to be of value to the community and to affect positive growth and change. Applications are now being accepted for the 2024 Leadership Englewood class. More information and the application form can be found at EnglewoodChamber.com.

signed around improving health-care access,” said Steve Young, Chief Executive Officer of HCA Florida Englewood Hospital. “From emergency care to hospital care, we will continue to build to match the healthcare needs of the community as it grows.” Specific details will be released as plans are finalized. This project connects the Wellen Park area to HCA Florida Healthcare services already available in Sarasota County and across the state at more than 650 affiliated sites of care. More information about the hospital can be found at hca-floridahealthcare.com/locations/Englewood.

Patient Care Tech Training
Looking for a new career? The StarTech program is a unique, educational opportunity designed to meet the needs for Patient Care Techs at HCA Florida Healthcare Englewood Hospital and other area hospitals. The paid five-week program combines classroom interactive lectures, skills, electronic health record training/practice and hands-on clinical training. There are three weeks of classroom instruction, Monday-Friday, 8 am to 5 pm, following by two weeks of clinical orientation. Upon completion, the unlicensed Patient Care Technicians are equipped with the knowledge and skill set to care for the patients in an acute care hospital setting. To learn more, visit bit.ly/3WWWo3U.

Seagrass Monitors Needed

The Florida Sea Grant program, "Eyes on Seagrass", is gearing up for the summer seagrass monitoring period. Volunteers are needed for the important task of observing and documenting seagrass conditions in Charlotte

County waters and Lemon Bay. Volunteers and volunteer boat captains are encouraged to attend the seagrass monitoring training program on Saturday, June 24, 10 am to noon, at the Centennial Park Recreation Center, 1120 Centennial Blvd., Port Charlotte. If you have participated in previous seagrass monitoring activities, you do not need to attend the training session.

Come and walk the Labyrinth on the Hill at Lemon Creek Wildflower Preserve with Tonya Bramlage and Lary Stuhmiller to celebrate the summer solstice on Wednesday, June 21 at 6 pm. The June solstice is significant because the sun reaches its northernmost point in the sky at this time, at which point the sun's path does not change for a brief period of time. After the solstice, the sun appears to reverse course and head back in the opposite direction symbolic of the same pattern used when walking the Labyrinth. The Preserve is located at 3120 Gasparilla Pines Blvd. For more information, call 941-830-8922.

You can review monitoring procedures by watching the Eyes on Seagrass video available at sfyl.ufl.edu/charlotte/sea-grant/eyes-on-seagrass/. Equipment pick-up is June 26-30, 9 am to 5 pm, at Centennial Park. If you are interested in participating, contact Jodie York at 941-764-4349, Tuesday through Thursday, to register.

Guided Kayak EcoTour
Join CHEC and Biotica EcoTours on a beautiful, guided kayak ecotour of Lemon Bay and the surrounding mangrove habitats, including the nearby bird rookery, on Sunday, June 25, 9 to 11:30 am. The tour is perfect for all skill levels with easy-paced paddling and wonderful for nature lovers and bird enthusiasts. Fee is $50 per person, which includes kayak and all other equipment for the day. Meeting location is at the kiosk by the visitor center at Cedar Point Environmental Park, 2300 Placida Road. Must register in advance by calling Biotica Eco Tours at 941-350-4905 or bioticatours.com/eco-tours.

Sea Turtle Nesting Count

The Coastal Wildlife Club has posted their latest Sea Turtle Nesting statistics as of June 9th: 2064 loggerhead nests, 85 green nests, and one Kemp's Ridley nest. They have had their first hatch out, too! Please continue your good beach habits to help sea turtles survive by filling any holes you dig or you see someone has left as hatchlings may become trapped in a hole. Clear other obstructions, such as beach furniture, toys and other recreational equipment from the beach at the end of the day. Keep artificial light from reaching the beach, including flashlights, cellphone backlights, and even red lights, as they are disruptive to nesting and hatching sea turtles. Pick up trash and picnic scraps from the beach to keep potential predators from the beach. Learn more at coastalwildlifeclub.org.

With funding provided by Lemon Bay Conservancy (LBC) donors and a $100 grant from the Mangrove Chapter of the Florida Native Plant Society, LBC volunteers have replanted Florida native plants in the butterfly habitat at Lemon Creek Wildflower Preserve. The new plants now occupy a large section of the habitat that was severely damaged by Hurricane Ian. LBC volunteers Jim and Marti Klug, Maura Qualls, Jack Simmonds and Ann Weaver traveled to Sweet Bay Nursery in Parrish to select and transport the new plants. This dedicated team of volunteers dug holes, spread compost, and scheduled regular watering for 40 new plants in 13 different species. The new plants will provide nectar for butterflies and bees, as well as host the caterpillars of several butterfly species. The new plantings include Black-eyed Susan, Twinflower, False Rosemary, Coontie, Swamp Milkweed, Seaside Goldenrod, Tampa Vervain, Purple Coneflower, Partridge Pea, Blue-eyed Grass, Yellowtop, Elephant's Foot, and Common Tickseed. If you would like to learn more about Lemon Creek Wildflower Preserve and LBC, visit lemonbayconservancy.org or call 941-830-8922.

Tips on Choosing and Using Sunscreen

By The Skin Cancer Foundation

As summer approaches and we spend more time outdoors, The Skin Cancer Foundation would like to remind everyone how to use sunscreen safely and effectively as part of a sun protection routine. Although no single sun protection method is foolproof, research has shown that daily sunscreen use not only reduces skin cancer risk but also helps prevent premature skin aging caused by ultraviolet (UV) rays from the sun.

“My patients often ask, ‘What is the best sunscreen for me?’” says Deborah S. Sarnoff, MD, president of The Skin Cancer Foundation. “I say the best sunscreen is the one you’ll actually use. Finding a product that works with your skin and lifestyle makes it easier to incorporate it into your daily routine. Using sunscreen every morning should be as second nature as brushing your teeth.”

What’s on the Label?

Selecting a sunscreen can seem overwhelming – you’ll encounter many different formulations, and language on product packaging may be unfamiliar (and sometimes unpronounceable!). However, The Skin Cancer Foundation believes everyone can find a sunscreen that works for them. Deciphering a sunscreen’s label is the first step to choosing your perfect product.

The first thing to consider is the sunscreen’s SPF (sun protection factor). One way to think about SPF is in terms of percentages: SPF 15 filters out approximately 93 percent of all incoming ultraviolet B (UVB) rays. SPF 30 keeps out 97 percent and SPF 50 keeps out 98 percent of UVB. A sunscreen with a minimum of SPF 15 may be fine for days that you’re mostly inside, but if you’re spending an extended amount of time outdoors, pick a water-resistant formula with an SPF of at least 30.

The second thing to check for on a label is the term “broad spectrum.” It’s vital that your sunscreen offers broad-spectrum protection, which means the product protects against both ultraviolet A (UVA) and UVB rays. Both types of UV rays penetrate the skin and cause damage that can lead to skin cancer. So, if a sunscreen only screens out one type, you’re leaving your skin vulnerable.

Once you’ve decided on your SPF and checked that a product has broad-spectrum protection, you can decide on other qualities based on personal preference and lifestyle. For example, check the list of active ingredients on the bottle. Look for a physical filter (zinc oxide or titanium dioxide) if you have sensitive skin – they’re less likely to cause skin reactions than chemical ingredients. Many sunscreens combine both chemical and physical filters. You can also look for the formulation and product “feel” that is right for you. There are quality sunscreen options available in lotions, gels, sticks and sprays. Many offer tinting, antiaging ingredients, dry “sports” feel or benefits for acne-prone skin. There are now many skin care items like serums and moisturizers that include UV filters as well. The most important part is using the product correctly.

How Much, How Often?

You’ve selected an appropriate SPF, chosen a broad-spectrum formula and found a product that you like. But it won’t protect your skin if you don’t use it as directed. Understanding application is a must. Use one ounce of sunscreen, about the amount that would fit into a shot glass, to cover the entire body. For the face, a nickel-sized dollop works. Slathering on sunscreen in the morning isn’t enough to protect you all day, though — when you apply matters. The Skin Cancer Foundation recommends applying sunscreen

30 minutes before going outside, then reapplying every two hours and immediately after swimming or sweating. Water-resistant sunscreens typically offer 40 minutes or 80 minutes of protection while you’re in the water. No sunscreen is truly waterproof, however, so in these situations, be aware of how long the product claims to protect against moisture and keep an eye on the clock. With reapplication, a person should use up one four-ounce bottle of sunscreen during a full day outdoors.

To find products that have earned The Skin Cancer Foundation’s Seal of Recommendation for safe and effective sun protection, visit SkinCancer.org/recommended-products.

Safe Sunscreen: One Part of Sun Protection

Now that you’ve picked out the sunscreen that’s right for you, it’s important to remember that no single sun protection method can protect you completely. The Skin Cancer Foundation has always recommended a multi-pronged approach to sun safety. While using sunscreen is a crucial part of any sun protection routine, it’s also important to seek shade and cover up with clothing, including a wide-brimmed hat and UV-blocking sunglasses.

About The Skin Cancer Foundation

The Skin Cancer Foundation saves and improves lives by empowering people to take a proactive approach to daily sun protection and the early detection and treatment of skin cancer. The mission of the Foundation is to decrease the incidence of skin cancer through public and professional education and research. Since its inception in 1979, the Foundation has recommended following a complete sun protection regimen that includes seeking shade and covering up with clothing, including a wide-brimmed hat and UV-blocking sunglasses, in addition to daily sunscreen use. I'm not your typical Barbie girl, I am much better! I'm one gorgeous kitty, with the personality to match. I am full of energy and love to play. I can turn anything into a toy, whether it's a crumpled piece of paper or a feather on a string. I am an affectionate companion who loves curling up on laps and snuggling close to my human friends while purring away.

Hello friend, my name is Emmett. I'm an energetic and playful boy that will brighten up anyone's day with my infectious enthusiasm. My gorgeous blue eyes and wagging tail show my irresistible charm. I thrive on interactive play, whether it's chasing a ball, playing tug-of-war, or participating in a game of frisbee. I have an uncanny ability to turn even the simplest activities into joyous adventures. I am always ready for an exciting outing or a rousing game with my human friends. I have a very loyal and loving side to me also and I will make the perfect couch cuddle buddy at day's end.

Meet Tiger. He is a 6-year-old neutered male Tabby cat. He is a friendly boy and would love to come home with you. Tiger has lived with other cats.

Bear is a pure-bred Husky. He is a 5½ yr. old, neutered male. Bear weighs 89 pounds and has a thick fur coat. Because of that he might have a hard time with the Florida heat and likes to take walks early or later in the day. He likes older kids but no cats. Bear is super friendly and playful.

Sudoku

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
